COOLIDGE MAY LOSE CONTROL OF NEXT SENATE

Sufficient Setbacks Among "Regulars" To Give Power to Insurgents

LENROOT'S DEFEAT BLOW

Democrats Hopeful of Invading Territory North of Mason-Dixon Line

Washington, Sept 9 The Coolidge administration for all practical purposes already has lost control of the next senate

There have been sufficient casualties among the regular Republicans in the primaries to date to assure the future of power being held by the insurgent bloc with overall control based on the election of these insurgents with the Democrats where they care to combine and exercise it

This will be true irrespective of whether the Democrats win a single seat north of the Mason Dixon line in November—and of that there is unlikely to be many

The drift to the Democrats in northern states eight weeks hence even the present majority of the republicans will not support

Called Severe Blow

Another [illegible] the proposition thus far made these facts undisputed The defeat of Senator Lenroot in Wisconsin despite his long and [illegible] record personal endorsement by President Coolidge was a particularly severe blow It virtually insures the permanent control in Wisconsin of the 70th cousin La Follette and Blaine from the ruling days of the other La Follette there was always one regular from Wisconsin

The maximum Republican strength on paper in the next senate is 54 and to have that they must win every senatorial election outside of these hold outs But in that event will be La Follette and Blaine of Wisconsin Frazier and Nye of North Dakota Howell and Norris of Nebraska Brookhart of Iowa—who vote more often against the White House than with it

There are also Borah of Idaho Johnson of California Norbeck and McMaster of South Dakota and Couzens of Michigan who while not as openly insurgent as the other group are not yet independent in their voting and a imperfect ions to the party whip

Democrats Hopeful

The Democrats are jubilant for they believe they can pick up several seats in November north of the Mason Dixon

They could not have hoped to escape Louis Hecht Buckley police chief who led the posse said

They were out of their element—"city slickers" pitted against farmers on the farmers own ground They weren't prepared to go through country such as weeks of rain has made this and it was only a question of time when they would have had to surrender or die in the woods

The bandits gave their names as George Brown 3 of Chicago C A Burke 2 of Chicago and Harry Leonard 24 of Montana

ACTRESS PLANNING VISIT TO UNITED STATES

Mme Fernanda Diamant who has been won me Paris theatrical audiences recently is planning a stage tour of the United States the coming winter season

Peru by the Treaty of Ancon in 1883 ending a bloody war

Another step in the administration's effort for Latin American accord was taken with the signing of a new treaty with the Republic of Panama in which the little nation homes an ally of the United States in the defense of the Panama canal

One sore point remains in Nicaragua where the government of General Chamorro has not been recognized because it is charged he cried power by unconstitutional methods Of long duration are the Mexican land laws and the claims of American citizens for damages suffered in Mexico during the frequent uprisings there

China remains as a constant challenge to the United States and other foreign powers jealous of a general relinquishment of the great authority seized in China to maintain order and make foreign interests secure The state department is now giving its support to a movement to turn back the mixed courts in Shanghai to Chinese control

The apparently futile efforts of the preparatory commission on disarmament mem conference to reach a basis at Geneva thus augurs for an accord of greater scope than the Washington naval conference was not a disappointment to American diplomat

Remain At Geneva

Despite their lack of confidence in the desire of European nations to disarm the American delegation is being kept in Geneva to notify the world that the United States is willing to go along with other nations in an endeavor to preserve peace throughout the world

The genius hatred of America which diplomats have reported exists in many harassed countries is giving Secretary Kellogg plenty of opportunity to exercise his best for smoothing troubled waters

On one subject Mr Kellogg apparently departs from his generally settled policy of friendship and good will This is Russia Never can Washington officials will Russia be recognized as long as he is secretary of state Socialism and communism are to him vipers to be stamped out

No Russian of prominence comes to the United States without Mr Kellogg knowing about the visit Nor does any one get a visa on his passport if there is good reason to suspect he is coming for the purpose of spreading propaganda of the Russian Soviet

NEW PEDDLER LAW TO GO INTO EFFECT TONIGHT

New Regulations Intended To Control Sales of Itinerant Merchants

Marion's new peddlers' license ordinance, placing more drastic restrictions on the sale of goods in the city by local and itinerant vendors of all classes of merchandise, will become effective at 12 o'clock tonight.

The new regulations are intended to establish absolute control over sales of this type and are expected to eliminate the more serious difficulties experienced in the past in addition to giving greater protection for the public against fakirs and the marketing of inferior goods.

Registration of all peddlers at the city offices is one of the outstanding provisions of the new ordinance. In the past there has been no such requirement in a serious handicap to officials in enforcing and prosecuting violators of peddling rules then in effect.

Special Committee

The granting of permits is to be in the hands of a licensing committee made up of the chief of police, health commissioner, chief of the fire department, director of public safety and city solicitor. All applications for licenses will be acted upon by this body before permits are granted by the mayor. A meeting of the committee will be called within the next few days by Mayor Hazen for the purpose of organizing and outlining a uniform plan of procedure.

Application blanks are now being prepared and will be ready within the next few days, according to Clerk H. B. Snyder. All of requirements regarding the furnishing of bonds are complete. The bonds provided for in the ordinance and of the amount set for each.

Others Regarded

All licensed peddlers selling [illegible] subject are regarded as [illegible] temporary merchants that have rented rooms for offices and are operating the peddling privilege in connection therewith. These were specifically provided in some of the old rules of [illegible] say.

It is believed that under the new system the public will be fully protected against the sale of shoddy goods, short weight and other [illegible] that have [illegible] to vendors in the past. No goods can be marketed without first being investigated and improved by the licensing committee.

The ordinance provides that "every itinerant peddler, transient merchant and itinerant vendor shall be required to make application to the mayor for a right to solicit, peddle or send merchandise, goods, wares, meats, fish and vegetables on forms provided by the city."

Two Exemptions

There are two exemptions in the ordinance requirements. Persons selling goods manufactured or produced outside the state of Ohio can not be required to obtain licenses, according to a recent court ruling. These vendors are subject only to the interstate commerce law. Neither does the ordinance apply to persons residing in the city or county who are selling goods of their own manufacture or fruits and vegetables raised by them.

It is the intention of officials, however, to require all vendors to register.

Regulations of license exemptions. The mayor also plans to use his own discretion in regard to the granting of permits to vendors not included in the former provisions. He states that where he is convinced that there is doubt regarding the credentials of peddlers or peddlers and the class of goods they offer for sale he will continue his present policy of denying these permits. He intends that he should exercise this authority for the protection of the citizens of Marion regardless of the literature how or what commercial conditions exist.

Registration Fee

A registration fee of 25 cents is to be collected from every applicant. Peddlers using vehicles either motor propelled or horse drawn, must pay an additional $2 each for special permits and their conveyance are to be inspected before issued.

Vendors of fruits and vegetables from cars, stores or trucks, or from stands of conventional types will be required to make special application and pay $5 daily for sales privileges.

Transient or itinerant vendors will be assessed a fee of from $1 to $25 a day, according to the kind and quality of their merchandise.

Any peddler found to be operating without a permit will be subject to a fine of not less than $10 and not more than $50 and each day that he attempts selling will constitute a separate offense.

Vendors in possession of licenses issued under the old system will be required to continue in business until Dec. 31 notwithstanding applications under the new regulations. All starting in business after today, however, must comply with the new ordinance.

The records of City Clerk Snyder show that 32 licenses have been issued this year, which is less than half of the average 12 month total. In 1925 75 licenses were issued.

The new peddling regulations were adopted chiefly as a result of efforts on the part of Mayor Hazen, who began advocating definite and more drastic control of the situation while he served as city clerk under Mayor Buckley and continued urging action after becoming the city's chief executive.

Know
who makes the gas
you buy

Did you ever count gasoline pumps? Has it ever occured to you that every one of them may offer a different grade of gasoline? Do you ever stop and think that all gasoline may look alike, may smell alike? How are you going to know good gasoline from bad?

There is only one way. Know who makes it. And know what kind of makers they are. A good many pumps don't tell you this and a good many pump operators don't know themselves.

If you will stick to Pure Oil Blue Pumps you can be sure. The Pure Oil Company, the oldest independent, has survived and prospered and gained its splendid reputation entirely because of quality products. That is why Purol Gasoline is Always Good Gasoline.

Divided Loyalty Impossible.

We came upon an editorial recently which might well be given publication in every paper in the land A month or two ago the Denver Post inaugurated a series of contests offering a prize each week for the best editorial submitted to it The editorials submitted it was announced could be written on any subject but it was stipulated that they must be entered by those writing them One of the prize winning editorials headed You Can't Be Loyal to Two Countries written by A I Hayfield editor of the Mountain State Monitor of Denver is that to which we specifically refer It reads

The Good Book says that one can not serve two masters By the same token one can not hold sincere allegiance to two countries—it can not hold aloft two flags and be loyal to both at the same time One or the other must ride at the top of the mast Loyalty is an attribute akin to godliness Treason is the outward expression of ingratitude

President Coolidge says that the greatest danger to our government today lies among those who are here but who are unassimilated in heart and spirit, and whose greater love is still for the foreign lands they left to better their condition in the United States

It is not unnatural nor even cause for criticism that a person coming to the United States from some foreign country should retain a certain degree of love for the land of his birth All citizens of the United States descend from foreign lands and there is no disrespect in this We love to trace our ancestry back to the Pilgrim fathers and even beyond But there is a limit to ancestral bountifulness

Marital vows remove a young man or a young woman from the paternal home and a new home is chosen This does not mean that love and respect for the old home should be obliterated but it does mean that a new door has been erected—a new hearthstone built and dedicated to a new life and this is the altar and this is the hearthstone that demand loyalties above all others

So it is with the country of one's adoption No man ever came to the United States or America except of his own volition urged by a desire to obtain greater temporal blessings The birthwas of the seas are never closed against his return if he finds himself unhappy under the laws and under the constitution of this country

Loyalty to God to country to home and to ones self commands confidence of others and bespeaks good citizenship

We believe our readers will agree that much is said in the foregoing of the expenditure of very little space It offers no flowers There isn't any attempt at fine writing It simply brings out in the fewest and simplest words possible the points its writer desires to argue in support of his contention that good citizenship is impossible in one of divided national allegiance

The Post's plan to encourage expression of opinion in its community is an excellent one and if many of the prize winning editorials are of the worth and character of the one herein quoted it is a profitable one to the communities as well.

The alarm began about 2 o'clock and ringing until 3 o'clock before citizens of the town men went to investigate the cause.

CITY MAY NOT ABANDON USE OF HOG FARM

Tenant Arranging To Eliminate Conditions Surrounding Disposal of Garbage

There is little likelihood that Marion will be required to abandon the use of its "hog farm" west of the city for garbage disposal purposes.

As a result of action taken by Dr. N. Sifritt, county health officer, city officials and the farm tenant are arranging to eliminate objectionable conditions which have been the cause of protests from persons living and working in the vicinity of the garbage disposal land and a satisfactory adjustment is expected within the next few days.

Since abandonment of the garbage incinerator plant about two years ago because of the excessive cost of operation, about 80 acres of land owned by the city and located near the sewage disposal plant have been leased to a tenant who uses a large part of the garbage collection for feeding hogs. Objections were filed recently with City Health Commissioner Weiser by persons who charge that offensive odors emanated from refuse not consumed by the hogs. Dr. Weiser reported the matter to the State Health Department, and received the information that the problem should be placed in the hands of Dr. Sifritt.

Plan Satisfactory

Health authorities say that this plan of garbage disposal is employed in numerous counties throughout the state and is operated so that there are no conditions menacing to public health.

It is likely that the situation here will be handled by burning all excess garbage accumulation.

Burning of the refuse, as was done up until two years ago, is now impracticable, officials say, the cost of fuel being so high that the process would place a tremendous burden on the city treasury.

SAYS 1926 TO BE TURNING POINT IN AUTO DEATHS

Opinion Is Expressed In Safety Council Report Received by Marion Police

"It is quite possible" reads a report received by Chief James W. Thompson of Marion police force, from the National Safety Council at Chicago, "that 1926 will be the turning point in the automobile fatality record of the United States."

The National Council declares that the gain in the number of deaths by automobile from former years is due largely to the police departments, safety councils, auto clubs and other organizations interested in highway and street safety.

During the month of July in six large cities of the United States, where great strides have been made for safety measures, automobiles were recorded from automobile accidents. The cities, namely, St. Paul, Lowell, Memphis, Nashville, Kansas and Paterson, formerly had their death totals from accidents of that nature. Eighteen cities of the country, with the population of 2,045,000 also were free from auto fatalities.

In the 56 cities and four states which report weekly to the National Safety Council a total of 926 persons were killed in traffic accidents during the month of July, according to the report received by Chief Thompson.

The death rate for July in the entire United States was 99 persons each day. The number shows an increase of two persons each day over July, 1925.

For the last seven months, however, the entire country reveals a reduction in the total of deaths. The cities and states of the council also showed a slight decrease since the first of the year.

Public deaths of the 41 cities which report to the council numbered 248 during July from a population of 11,510,500. Of this number 97 were drowning victims, 55 railroad accidents other than with automobiles, 24 street car deaths and 12 firearms. The remainder were resulted from miscellaneous accidents.

WIFE OF FRENCH WAR ACE GETS DECREE OF DIVORCE

Paris, Sept. 9.—Mrs. Consuelo Hutmaker Nungesser was granted a divorce today from her husband, the French war ace, Charles Eugene Nungesser.

Mrs. Nungesser originally requested a decree in October, 1925. Nungesser went to America seeking to effect a reconciliation. The couple later returned to France together.

According to friends of Nungesser, he recently explained his inability to live any longer with his wife as follows: "She's too rich and too keen for the social life which I can not endure."

Business Men's Stars are Shut Out Second Time, 1-0; in Fast Extra Inning Game

Holds Rice and His Gang Scoreless While Sheehe Crosses Street Across for Only Tally of Eight Inning Game, Series Close

SCORING the only run of an extra inning game Street crossed the plate in the last of the eighth inning and the Little World's Series was won by the Osgoods 1 to 0 last night at Lincoln Park where the Business Men's team went down in a hotly contested eight innings. The losers were on the short end of a four-to one.

Sheehe, Osgood's Tris Speaker was the last man to bat in the series and he did his bit nobly by pounding in the run with two out only a few minutes after Street had went to second and third on sacrifice hits by Hall and Riddle. Sheehe's hit went into right field and Street walked home where the crowd was waiting with a cheerful welcome. The fans also gave a big hand. The attendance last night set the record for the season when more than 300 men, women and children filled the park.

The champions went through the series without losing a game and in fact did not allow a single opposing player to reach second base. Only seven men were walked two and one batter was hit by a pitched ball.

Rice and Weihemeyer were the only Business Men batters who were able to get a hit off Osgood pitchers. Rice got two of the three hits made by his team and Weihemeyer the other. Both of these hits were made in the first inning when Rice got to second on Weihemeyer's single but was left there when the next batter struck out.

That was the last hard battle for the champions who, in addition to winning the game, also won the series by the one run margin.

The Business Men batted in the ninth inning in an effort to tie the score but were retired in order, 4 to 3.

Summary:

Records Repeat

Chuck Klein repeated last night in the two ways that their first game. Klein one with a single and a double in four times at bat and batted in three runs. Klein was walked twice and struck out.

Lucker Weakened

Marty Lucker, who held up the Osgoods in the first game, weakened in the last game. Lucker was hit hard and was relieved by Toomire in the seventh inning. Toomire was batted for by Rice but the runs were made off Lucker.

Sidelights on Little World's Series Games

TOOMIRE was somewhat puzzled in last night's Little World's Series game which gave Osgoods the city championship when he was called out at third base as a result of Coach Lashey trying to draw a throw to the plate by running out of the third base coacher's box.

Lashey, the big third baseman for the Osgoods championship nine wearing a flashy striped jersey, tore down the line when Toomire shoot to home home, one

Runner Is Out

Section 3 of Rule 7 under Definitions of Terms states that a batter-runner is out when he fails to touch first base in the following circumstances, viz: When, after having reached first base, he runs more than three baseline feet from a direct line between first and second bases in order to avoid being touched by a fielder attempting to field a batted ball.

This one particular case However we will be glad to receive his opinions on the matter.

Section 5 of the same rule states that a batter-runner is out when, before touching first base, he is touched by a fielder with the ball in his hand, or by the ball, or by a part of his uniform detached from his person, or by his cap, when such cap is batted or thrown from his head by the ball, or by his shoulder, unless it is touching first base and the fielder is obliged to reach over the runner to make the play.

WHO GETS HIT OUT

Section 6 in fielding, records chapter of Spaulding's said we read: In cases of the base runner being declared out for interference in running out of line to avoid being touched by the batted ball, the out should be credited to the player who would have made the play but for the action of the base runner in the accomplishment of the umpire. This rule in part covers the play heretofore mentioned we believe and for this reason it is optional with the scorekeeper who should be credited with the out in this play.

Cincinnati Drops Two to Pirates and World's Champs Renew Fight for Flag

Pittsburgh Trails Reds by Half Game and Are Three and One-Half Sessions Behind St. Louis; Indians and Yanks Lose in American

New York Sept 9—Pittsburgh's pennant chances were considerably brighter today as a result of the double defeat which the world's champions administered to the Reds yesterday.

The Pirates are now only half a game behind the Reds who trail the Cardinals by three games.

The Cards will play a double header with the Cubs today while St. Louis and Cincinnati are idle.

The Yanks lost yesterday but increased their chances as the Indians also were defeated. If the Yanks win only half of their remaining 18 games Cleveland must capture 17 out of 18 to win in front.

Fighting with their backs to the wall the Pirates defeated the Reds in both games of a twin bill by scores of 6 to 1 and 11 to 4. Meadows and Hill pitched in fight half while Fred Babich 19 year old Kansas high school boy who is playing left field for the Pirates got three hits in each game.

White of the Red Sox held the Yankees to two hits and beat them 6 to 2 today. Pat Souses losing streak of 17 straight. Rogers Hornsby and seven other members of the Cardinals watched the game but saw nothing to cause them any great worry.

Detroit's sluggers pounded Shanks and Rorr to all corners of the lot the Indians losing 10 to 7. It was Cleveland's third straight defeat.

Cy Williams pulled a Frank Merriwell by poling out his 15th homer of the season with the bases filled in the ninth enabling the Phillies to beat Brooklyn 8 to 4.

The Giants and the Braves each split a double bill. New York winning the opener 6 to 1 and Boston copping the night cap 4 to 2.

CHAMP LAUGHS AT WINDY $100,000 STORY ON TUNNEY

Atlantic City Sept 9. A story oldest in the world [illegible] the ringside tickets were to be sold for $100,000.

A man pretty well up and very well heeled who has had a lot of money on four fights in a row [illegible] about $100,000 worth of "suckers" in Philadelphia was on hand to catch the decision and the championship for his man.

When Dempsey was told of this, the champion laughed.

Well, well, well, he commented. Its beginning to sound like the old days. I knew somebody would dig up a yarn like that sooner or later. They always do. And the figure is about the same. When I moved it with Bill Brennan in New York somebody was going to get 300,000 more beautiful dollars for throwing the decision to Bill."

SKULL PRACTICE

Various commissions have done more harm than good to the Dempsey-Tunney fight so far but there are several matters upon which they might act to the public's advantage.

Assure the Public of a fair sized sandwich for the 50 cents that will be charged.

Get Dempsey and Tunney real angry at each other.

Bar the big fat guys that always squat in the aisle as daintily as a herd of elephants.

Prohibit the practice of squeezing five persons into four seats at the ringside.

Refcree Question Does Not Trouble Gene, Who Recalls That Dempsey Is Clean Fighter, Always Willing To Abide by Rules Champion Rests

By DAVIS J WALSH

Stockbridge Mass Sept 9 With only eight days remaining before the battle between Gene Tunney and Jack Dempsey for the heavyweight championship of the world, the challenger is confident that he will win the bout and retain the title at the conclusion of the fifteen rounds.

Tunney is not worried about the question of the referee's decision in the event the fight goes the limit. He is not worried about the possibility of a foul blow ending the battle before the fifteen rounds are completed. He is not worried about the fact that Dempsey is a hitter with a terrific punch. He is not worried about the fact that Dempsey is a fighter who has been in the ring with the best of them for the last ten years. Uncle Wiggily and His Friends

The Fox slunk out of his den with a very determined face.

"I will," said the wife of the Fox, "if you have made up your mind to do something."

"I have," barked the Fox, for in fact he was like a dog. "I have made up my mind to catch Uncle Wiggily and I am not coming home without him. So build a good fire, get lots of hot water ready and we can have rabbit ears for supper."

Mrs. Fox seemed to say something, though her husband was not sure about it, and inquired:

"What was that about hot water?"

"I said be careful you don't get in the water instead of putting Uncle Wiggily in," answered the lady Fox. "He is a very clever rabbit."

"Bah! I am smarter than he is," scoffed the Fox. "You don't know what a smart husband you have. If you like you may invite Mr. and Mrs. Wouse Wolf to supper. They like rabbits. I am very smart!"

Mrs. Fox said something that sounded like: "You are if I let you tell it," for lady of a sensitive nature, Mr. Fox did not stop to inquire. Off he trotted over the hills and through the woods to the hollow stump bungalow of the rabbit gentleman.

Hiding in the bushes, and watching to discover, the Fox saw the furry bunny boys and girls go to school. He saw Mrs. Longears start for the six and seven cent store to buy herself a new pair of diamond earrings.

Then out came Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy, the muskrat lady housekeeper. Half way down the front steps she turned back to call:

"I am not going to the grocery to get a can of soup, Uncle Wiggily. When I come back I am going to wash the dishes, wring them in the wringer and hang them out to dry."

"All right!" answered a voice.

"Hurray!" softly snarled the Fox. "That means Uncle Wiggily is at home alone. Nothing could be better for my plan! I'll slink in and get him!"

So the Fox slunk in the hollow stump bungalow. That is he went on his tummy very softly, and before Uncle Wiggily knew it, there was the bad chap standing in front of him.

"Oh!" gasped the bunny gentleman. "Is that you?"

"Ha! Ha!" laughed the Fox. "You don't expect any one else, do you?"

"No, I did not," truthfully answered Mr. Longears.

"Well here I am!" snapped the Fox. "This is a surprise, coming to you instead of you having to go look for it, ha! ha!" And the Fox was so excited, thinking how smart he was, and how he was going to carry the bunny off to his den, that the Fox breathed hard as if he had run far.

"You're quite out of breath!" politely said Uncle Wiggily. "Let me get you a glass of water."

"I'll get mine," snickered the Fox. "You come to the kitchen with you to see that you don't run away."

But Uncle Wiggily held out the glass of water before giving it to the Fox. He spilled a lot of it on the big, bad chap.

"I am so sorry!" cried Uncle Wiggily. "I have wet your tail. But I'll soon fix that."

"How?" asked the Fox, who was very proud of his tail.

"I will wring all the water out of it in Nurse Jane's wringer," said the wise rabbit. "Here back up and put your tail in between the rubber rollers." Which the Fox, knowing no better, did.

And as soon as his tail was between the rollers, that Fox was caught fast. For Uncle Wiggily turned the handle and the wringer went around and the

The Fox was caught fast.

Fox was as tightly held as if he was in a trap.

"Wow! Wow! Oh, my tail! Let me go!" he howled. But, do you think Uncle Wiggily let that Fox go? No, indeed! He held him there until the Police Dog came and took the Fox to jail. The bad chap wasn't as smart as he thought, was he?

Anyhow, there were no bunny ears for supper that night, and if the spelling book isn't late for school when the blackboard eraser tries to swim in the geography ocean, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily's memory hells.

HOCKING VALLEY ENDS WORK ON SILVER-ST JOB

City Officials Say Crossing Among Best and Most Substantial in City

Extensive repair and improvement work at the Hocking Valley railroad crossing on Silver-st was completed yesterday by a force of men employed there for several weeks under the direction of Road Supervisor Frank Sparks. As a result of this work, which cost approximately $2,500, this crossing is now among the best and most substantial in the city, according to municipal officials who inspected the improvement following its completion. Levelling and strengthening of the Silver-st crossing so that it provides smooth and safe facilities for motor traffic is one of a series of similar improvements that have been in progress throughout the city. Nearly all of the most dangerous railroad crossings have been attended to satisfactorily by the various railroads passing through the city, the Big Four and Erie having placed the crossings on Oak Prospect, Main and Center-sts in fine condition of late, in good condition.

The railroad crossing of the Pennsylvania, the only one now in urgent need of attention and city officials are pleased to know that the railroad company has made repairs there in the near future.

The entire crossing of the Hocking Valley will be overhauled soon, according to the one on Columbia-st, to be completed by that company. Nothing is expected to be done there until the street is realigned by the city next year.

While complaints have been filed by local city officials regarding the Hocking Valley's crossing at Silver-st, the repairs made by the company did not come up to the expectations of the city's officials. The work is part of an extensive schedule applying to practically the entire route of the Hocking Valley, which includes reconstruction of several thousand crossings.

In the Silver-st repairs the workmen replaced 80 paving units formerly in use with the latest type, including new concrete and steel reinforcements that are guaranteed for many years. The new crossing is considered safer than the old one, and the driveway will be used to much greater advantage. Instead of the paving being rough and on a level with the street, the new crossing is smooth and on a level with the street.
